ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been submitted. I conclude the following facts are established: (Check one or both, as applicable.) by clear and convincing evidence the defendant is a danger to the community and require the detention of the pending trial in this case. by a preponderance of the evidence the defendant is a serious flight risk and require the detention of the defending trial in this case. PART I FINDINGS OF FACT (1) 18 U.S.C. §3142 (e)(2)(A): The defendant has been convicted of a (federal offense)(state or local or would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed) the a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4). an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death. an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. any felony that involves a minor victim or that involves the possession or use of a firearm or device (as those terms are defined in section 921), or any other dangerous weapon, or involt to register under 18 U.S.C. § 3250. (2) 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2)(C): A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction)(release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1. (3) 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2)(C): A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction)(release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1. (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of will reasonably assure the safety of (an)other person(s) and the community. I further find that the denote that the defendant has committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in finding 1.
